Dahlonega, site of the first major American Gold Rush, is one of the most historic towns in the United States. Its commercial buildings have been well preserved, and these landmark buildings are full of businesses as fascinating as the legends that have emerged with 175 years of thriving history.

To preserve the legends and honor the downtown Dahlonega historic district, the Dahlonega Stories plaque program is a fun way to learn more about these buildings that are part of the National Register of Historic Places.

Delightful discoveries await you at the 60+ retail stores and 17+ restaurants in downtown Dahlonega. And if you need banking, insurance, and professional services, downtown has 30+ businesses specializing in friendly customer service.

Downtown Dahlonega is your premier shopping and dining destination in North Georgia.

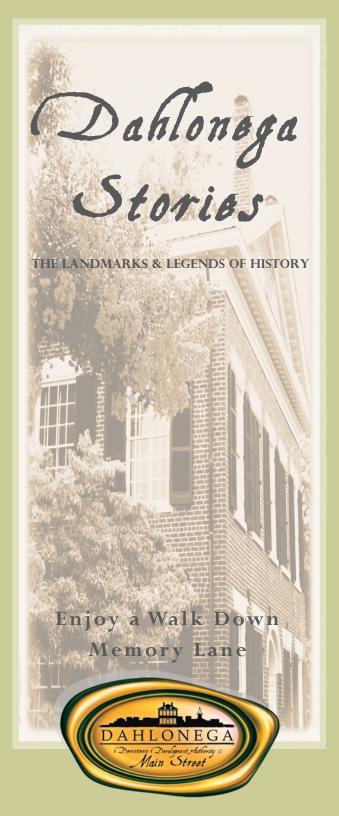

Dahlonega Stories is a partnership between property owners, the Downtown Development Authority/Main Street Program, and Dahlonega 2000, Inc.
